

Nov. 5, 2009

TIMOTHY GAINES OF STRYPER RELEASES FIRST SOLO INSTRUMENTAL PROJECT

(Nashville, TN)

Timothy Gaines, bassist for the internationally reknown Stryper, has released his first solo project, Breakfast @ Timothy's. This all instrumental CD features Gaines taking the lead role on bass guitar.

Timothy Gaines, best known as a founding member of the '80's Christian super group Stryper, first joined the Sweet brothers in the band Roxx Regime, in 1983, as their bass player and keyboardist. They soon changed the band's name to Stryper, and their success over a quarter century has been well documented with over 10 million in album sales, a Grammy nomination, and multiple Dove awards. Timothy has rejoined Stryper for their 25th Anniversary World Tour, scheduled to perform in approximately 50 US cities in 2009, followed by an international tour in 2010.

Breakfast @ Timothy's contains 12 instrumentals which vary from the edgy Rock Fiesta to the driving force of Stir Crazy, the funky sound of Severely Blue, and the beautiful ballad Sweet Lullaby. All twelve tunes were written and produced by Chris Eddy (the son of guitar legend Duane Eddy).

With a release in Fall '09, Breakfast @ Timothy's is available for purchase at Stryper shows, on Amazon.com, and iTunes.

For more information on Breakfast @ Timothy's visit: www.timothygaines.com